Faraday Copper to Commence Trading on the TSX on November 3, 2022

November 2, 2022 – Vancouver, British Columbia – Faraday Copper Corp. (“Faraday” or the “Company”) (CSE:FDY) (OTCQX:CPPKF) is pleased to announce that, further to its news release on October 21, 2022, its common shares have been approved for listing on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”) and will commence trading at market open on November 3, 2022 under the symbol “FDY”. Accordingly, the common shares of the Company will be delisted from the Canadian Securities Exchange (“CSE”) on November 3, 2022, upon commencement of trading on the TSX.

Shareholders are not required to exchange their share certificates or take any other action in connection with the TSX listing, as there will be no change in the trading symbol or CUSIP for the common shares.

Paul Harbidge, President & CEO, commented, “The listing on the TSX is an important milestone for the Company. As Canada’s largest and most liquid stock exchange, the TSX will provide access to a broader investor base and improved liquidity, benefiting both current and prospective shareholders.”

About Faraday Copper

Faraday Copper is a Canadian exploration company focused on advancing two copper projects in The United States of America. The Copper Creek project, located in Arizona, is one of the largest undeveloped copper projects in North America with open pit and bulk underground mining potential. The Contact Copper project, located in Nevada, provides potential for a low-cost open pit, heap leach, oxide project. The Company is well-funded to deliver on its key milestones and benefits from a management team and board of directors with senior mining company experience and expertise.
